

Austin T. Hendrix-Wright Biography

Austin T. Hendrix-Wright a native of Seattle Washington and the Nephew of the Legendary “Jimi Hendrix, was introduced to some of music industry greats at an early age. Trained in Guitar and piano he played with Michael Johnson, Stanley Jordan, Earth Wind and Fire, and various gospel groups in the Seattle community.

In an attempt to gain new insight and a college education, Austin chose the prestigious Historical Black College University, Morehouse. Obtaining a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies. Serving as event planner for Morehouse and contributing entertainment writer for the Maroon Tiger; Austin assisted in the production for big functions like the annual BET Hip Hop Awards, Soul Train Awards, Grammy Awards and other national events.

Post graduation, Austin accepted a position at the Environmental Protection Agency in Seattle Washington. There he fulfilled a position under the Informational Resources Unit. Realizing his passion lied in the music industry, Austin left the EPA for an intern position in California at Warner Bros. Records and to also pursue a JD at the University of Los Angeles California. In his first year at Warner Austin obtained invaluable experience working in both the Marketing and Artist & Repertoire department under Senior VP’s Xavier Ramos, Andy Olyphant and Kevin Williamson. Putting the knowledge he previously gained at his earlier internship at his families business Experience Hendrix LLC; Austin assisted with the artist development of:

Marketing

- Eric Benet “Sometimes I Cry”
  - 25th single in the country according to Billboard Charts
  - Grammy Nominated
- Book of Eli Soundtrack
- 500 Days of Summer Soundtrack
- Inception Soundtrack
- Avenged Sevenfold “Nightmare”
  - Number 1 single in the country according to Billboard
- Disturbed “Another way to die”
  - Number 2 rock single in the country according to Billboard
- The Maine “Black and White”
  - 4th album in the country according to Billboard Charts
- Robert Randolph “We Walk This Road Alone”
  - 4th album in the country according to Billboard Charts
- NeverShoutNever “What Is Love”

- 2nd Alternative album in the country according to Billboard

A&R

- Notable Artists
  - Gary Clark Jr
  - Kimbra
  - Missy Higgins
  - Sonny J Mason

W.A.S

- Campus Conscious Awareness Tour
- Nobel Peace Prize Concert 2011
- Experience Hendrix Tribute Tour 2012

Just to name a few...

August of 2012 Austin left Warner Bros Records to work with multiple Grammy Nominated Artist Janelle Monae and the Wondaland Arts Society as Project Manager. Currently Austin resides in Atlanta, GA.